Taking Metro to Inauguration? GEORGE Can Get You There For Free!

Falls Church residents who are planning to take Metrorail to Washington, D.C. on Inauguration Day, Tuesday, Jan. 20, are encouraged to take the City's GEORGE bus to the East and West Falls Church Metrorail stations. GEORGE will operate its regular weekday schedule; service begins at 6 a.m. and runs until approximately 7:30 p.m. Along with all other Virginia bus routes that serve Metrorail stations, GEORGE will offer free fares for the day.

For exact routes and schedules, visit

www.fallschurchva.gov/Content/CultureRecreation/FaresAndSchedule.aspx.

GEORGE is Falls Church City's clean diesel bus, which provides local transit service throughout the City of Falls Church and to and from the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority's (WMATA) East and West Falls Church Metrorail stations.

For more information about GEORGE service, contact 703-248-5040 (TTY 711). Questions about Metro service on Inauguration Day should be directed to WMATA at 202-637-7000 (TDD: 202-638-3780).
